Cl: Cluster

Pattern/ Guide:

- The "Granny stripes" are crocheted at an angle, meaning you'll crochet from corner to corner.
- 1 dc cl equals 3 dc in same st.
- Turning is done with 3 ch, they count as 1 dc.

1. Crochet your mr. Ch 3, 1 dc cl, dc 1 into the ring and tighten lightly. (5 dc)

2. Ch 3 and turn. Make 1 dc cl between the 1st and 2nd dc. Make 1 dc cl and 1 dc between the 4th and 5th dc.

3. Ch 3 and turn. Make 1 dc cl between the first 2 dc. Now make 1 dc cl between the next 2 dc cl. Make 1 dc cl and 1 dc between the last 2 dc.

4. Repeat this until your blanket has the desired width. You'd crochet 76 rows to achieve the width specified in the measurements.

5. Now for how to decrease at an angle so the blanket doesn't become any wider. Ch 3 and turn. Make 1 dc cl between the first 2 dc cl (The needle in picture 2 shows where you need to crochet your first dc cl). Crochet the rest of the row as normal so your blanket continues to increase in length.

6. Ch 3 and turn. Make 1 dc cl between the first 2 dc. Crochet the rest of the row as normal with 1 dc cl between every dc. Dc 1 in last st.

7. Repeat the rows where you decrease across the short side whilst increasing the long side until you reach the desired length for your blanket. You'd crochet 28 rows to achieve the length specified in the measurements.

8. Now that the blanket shouldn't get any longer, you'll decrease both sides.
Ch 3 and turn. Make 1 dc cl between the first 2 dc cl (The needle in the picture shows where to put your first dc cl). Continue the row as normal and dc 1 in last st.

9. Repeat this row until you have 1 dc cl left. Now ch 3 and turn and dc 1 in the last stitch as marked in picture 2 with a needle. Fasten off and weave in ends.

Enjoy ☺
