About the pattern

The poncho is worked top down.

The marked stitches at the increases must be placed directly above each other. Use a thread and place new markers during the work.

Change to circular needle 23.6” (60 cm) and 31.5” (80 cm) as the number of stitches increases.

Abbreviations for the increases

Make 1 knitwise through the back loop

(M1 k tbl): Pick up the bar between the 2 stitches and knit it through the back loop.

Make 1 purlwise through the back loop

(M1 p tbl): Pick up the bar between the 2 stitches and purl it through the back loop.

Make 1 purlwise through the front and back loop (M1 p fb):
