INFO AND TIPS

To ensure a proper fit, measure the fullest part of your chest. Crochet four triangles, with each triangle's base matching 1/4 of your chest measurement.

If you intend to apply the main V-stitch pattern to a different crochet project, be sure to chain a multiple of 3 plus 5.

Repeat Row 2 35 times or until you reach the widest part of your hips after that start increasing the pattern.

Round 2: Ch 1, sl st in the ch-1 space of the first V-st, ch 4, TURN, dc in the same space, V-st in each ch-1 space around, join with sl st to the first V-st.

Repeat Round 2 7 times, after that repeat Round 1 once, then repeat Round 2 18 times or until you reach the desired length.

NOTE: If you want a wider skirt, simply crochet additional rounds with increases.

Stop working in the turning rounds.
