PATTERN INFORMATION

The Slate Sweater is knit in a drop-shoulder construction from the top-down with 4 separate charts. Stitches are cast on for the back and German short rows are used to shape the shoulders. Front shoulders are picked up from the back panel and the body is joined in the round after the yoke. The body is finished with 1x1 ribbing on smaller needles and bound off with an Italian/tubular bind off. A turtleneck is picked up and knit from the body in 1x1 ribbing on smaller needles. Sleeves are picked up and knit from the body and finished the same way as the body.

INFO AND TIPS

Note that charts A and B will need to be knit both back and forth (for the front and back panels) and in the round (on the sleeves). Charts C and D will only be knit in the round on the body and sleeves. Charts A, B, and C have a repeat section included in the chart and edge stitches. The repeat section in each chart is highlighted in red. Note that not all charts will have a perfect number of repeats for all sizes (in both the body and sleeves). When this happens, knit until the last stitch in your round and then start the next round with the 1st column in the next chart row.

For German short rows

It is important that you keep track of where you are in Chart A as you knit your German short rows. You will have 6 (6.5) 7 (7.5) 8 (8.5) 9 (9.5) 10 repeats of Chart A in the back panel, and on the RS of your work you will start with column 1 and end with column 16 (8) 16 (8) 16 (8) 16 (8) 16. On the WS of your work, you will start with column 16 (8) 16 (8) 16 (8) 16 (8) 16 and end with column 1.

BACK PIECE

With 5.5mm needles, cast on 96 (104) 112 (120) 128 (136) 144 (152) 160 stitches. Purl across one row placing stitch markers as follows: 18 (20) 23 (25) 28 (30) 32 (34) 36 sts – M1 – 60 (64) 66 (70) 72 (76) 80 (84) 88 sts – M2 - 18 (20) 23 (25) 28 (30) 32 (34) 36 sts. You will now start German short rows to shape the shoulders at the same time as you start knitting Row 2 of Chart A.

German short rows:

GSR1 (RS): Knit to 1 st past M1. Tw

GSR2 (WS): Knit to 1 st past M2. Tw

GSR3 (RS): Knit to 3 sts past M1. Tw

GSR4 (WS): Knit to 3 sts past M2. Tw

GSR5 (RS): Knit to 3 sts past your DS. Tw

GSR6 (WS): Knit to 3 sts past your DS. Tw

Repeat GSRs 5 and 6 3 (4) 5 (5) 6 (7) 8 (8) 9 more times. You will finish after GSR 12 (14) 16 (16) 18 (20) 22 (22) 24 and will have 2 (1) 1 (3) 3 (2) 1 (3) 2 sts left on the outer edge of each shoulder. Now knit the entire back panel back and forth until you have knit 26 (26) 26 (28) 28 (28) 30 (32) 34 rows of Chart A in total (not including the row you purled before starting GSRs). You should end after a WS row.

Knit across 2 rows.

Knit across the next row while evenly increasing 8 (7) 7 (8) 8 (9) 9 (10) 10 sts. The next row is a WS row.

Start knitting Chart B from Row 1. Knit 22 (22) 22 (24) 24 (26) 30 (30) 32 rows of Chart B in total. You should end after a RS row.

Purl across 2 rows.

Purl across the next row while evenly increasing 3 (4) 4 (4) 5 (5) 5 (6) 6 sts. The next row is a RS row.

Cut your yarn and put stitches on hold.

With the RS of the back piece facing you, count 18 (20) 23 (25) 28 (30) 32 (34) 36 sts in towards the center from the left edge of the work. Pick up 18 (20) 23 (25) 28 (30) 32 (34) 36 sts towards the left edge. The next row is a WS row. You will start Chart A, Row 1 at the same time you start your GSRs.

GSR2 (RS): Knit until you have 3 sts left. Tw

GSR4 (RS): Knit until 3 sts before your last DS. Tw

Repeat GSRs 3 and 4 3 (4) 5 (5) 6 (7) 8 (8) 9 more times, ending after row 10 (12) 14 (14) 16 (18) 20 (20) 22. Knit one additional set of GSRs:

GSR (RS): Knit until 2 sts before your last DS. Tw

You have now increased 6 (7) 8 (8) 9 (10) 11 (11) 12 sts. Continue knitting the left shoulder back and forth with increases for the neckline every WS row until you have knit 27 (27) 27 (29) 29 (29) 31 (33) 35 rows of Chart A in total (Do not make a neckline increase on the last row).
